Core Staples for Every Home

IKEA ← click the text ↗

Swedish flat-pack classic; cheap and familiar. Nearest big store is IKEA Tonden in Sapporo.

Nitori ↗

Often called the 'Japanese IKEA'; headquartered in Sapporo. Huge selection, affordable, tailored to Japanese apartments.

MUJI \(無印良品\) ↗

Minimalist, natural materials, neutral tones. Slightly pricier than Nitori/IKEA but timeless.

Francfranc ↗

Mid-range with more personality than Nitori or IKEA. Good for accent pieces and homewares.

Step Up & Good Value

Actus ↗

Scandinavian-inspired, stylish and functional. Sapporo store in Chuo-ku.

Unico ↗

Scandinavian / natural wood vibe. Sits between Muji and Actus in price.

Journal Standard Furniture ↗

Lifestyle brand with a cleaner, more curated feel.

Momo Natural ↗

Natural wood, pine-heavy, warm aesthetic.

LOWYA ↗

Trendy, high-quality furniture at affordable prices. Online ordering ships to Hokkaido.

Tokyo Interior ↗

Wide range, competitive pricing. Has a Sapporo-area store.

Secondhand & Budget Options

2nd Street ↗

Big Japanese recycle chain. Pre-loved furniture at a steep discount. Multiple locations around Sapporo.

Hard Off ↗

Secondhand chain with furniture, electronics, and household goods. Several Sapporo locations.
